The infographic is titled "Get The Body YOU Deserve!". It features a central figure of a person running, surrounded by various fitness-related icons and text. At the top, it says "EXERCISE" and lists activities like Swimming, Running, and Yoga. A yellow arrow points from "EXERCISE" to a box listing "Strength", "Speed", "Endurance", and "Mobility". A red arrow points from "EXERCISE" to a box stating "Exercise alone will leave you far short of your goals." Another red arrow points from "EXERCISE" to a box stating "Exercise alone won't get you where you want to be." A blue arrow points from "EXERCISE" to a box stating "Exercise alone won't get you there either!" Below this, a box lists benefits: "Fat loss", "Reduced risk for heart disease (Heart attacks and strokes)", "Energy", and "Longevity and more." To the right, a box says "While Dieting alone may make you look fit. Sadly you won't be." At the bottom, a box states "The term 'Skinny-Fat' originated from the fallacy that skinny is healthy." A red banner at the bottom says "A healthy fit you starts with a great workout program coupled with a healthy diet." The footer includes "Bildrz.com is a great resource to help you reach your fitness goals." and the "Bildrz.com" logo.
