Weathercraft is acclaimed cartoonist and painter Jim Woodring's first full-length graphic novel from 2010, set in the lush, wordless milieu — “the Unifactor” — of his most popular anthropomorph, the guileless Frank. Woodring's undulating landscapes, his hypnotic linework, and his spiritually rich iconography resonate together like the tantric harmonics of Tibetan monks.

Weathercraft: A Frank Comic. By Jim Woodring (Fantagraphics Books) ISBN: 978-1-60699-340-8. Some creators in the world of comics just defy description and their graphic novels and collections are beyond the reviewer's skills (mine certainly). Some are just so pedestrian or so mind-numbingly bad that one simply can't face writing about them.

In Weathercraft, Man Hog is the star and Frank is a background character.... I have long been a fan of this series and my appreciation for Jim Woodring's draftsmanship and depth of storytelling continues to grow. Before actually reading Weathercraft, I was lucky enough to attend a book signing event where Jim Woodring gave a slide show ...
